School of Radiologic Technology
Program Certification and Licensure Disclosure Statement

Program Certification

The Emory Decatur Hospital School of Radiologic Technology Program meets all of the curriculum requirements for national certification as set forth by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT). The program is accredited by The Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT). Currently, the state of Georgia does not require radiologic technologists to become licensed or certified to work in the state of Georgia.

Licensure Disclosure Statement

Although the state of Georgia does not currently require radiologic technologists to become licensed or certified to work in the state, the rules for certification and licensure vary from state to state. For specific information regarding other state licensure requirements, students may visit the following site: <https://www.arrt.org/about-the-profession/state-licensing>
